

Quest Scouts "Things to Know"

Across

4. Whether it be near or far, both visit and this type of objective often ask you to leave your home and go to a specified location.
5. To complete this type of objective, you might find yourself watching a film or listening to a podcast.
9. This type of quest has a circular shape & requires 1000 points to complete.
13. Find objectives often challenge you to participate in either geocaching or this similar activity.
14. Both DIY and ___ objectives encourage you to use your imagination and create something new.
15. This type of objective most often asks you to read, but occasionally asks you to write something as well.
16. While not the case 100% of the time, for the most part our "_____ Challenges" are released in the amount of time the title suggests.

Down

1. The idea for Quest Scouts was born in this monumental location. (Two words)
2. A grouping of objectives connected to a specific theme.
3. Quests Scouts exists to help inspire you to "Learn, _____, Connect & Discover".
6. These badges are not connected to completing a quest, OR are connected to completing multiple quests.
7. Collect 10 stars to earn your level I badge of this series. (Two words)
8. To complete this type of objective, you'll likely find yourself either in a library or searching the internet.
10. Shield shaped quests that often deviate from the norm. (e.g. personal goals, group elements, series)
11. A proposed task meant to challenge you to step outside your routine.
12. Objectives preceded by this word are meant to be completed in a shorter amount of time.